A long-awaited trip
Entering a long-distance relationship, I never expected to get attached to a person so much. My heart would fill with warmth whenever I talked to ~~this~~^{the} person. A chain of events brought about an incredible opportunity to meet one of my friends who lived thousands of kilometres away.

As the magical date of our meeting was getting close, my excitement was growing exponentially. The thought of seeing my friend not through the screen of my phone but with my own eyes could wipe off all negative emotions. I went through experienced.

On the day of departure, everything seemed surreal. This thoroughly planned trip started off in a blur as I simply could not believe ~~the the trip was~~. Flight attendants, beautiful sky in the window, a crying baby on board still could not convince me I was finally on the way to meet him.

However, when the plane landed, and I slowly came out of the aircraft, reality hit me. Here I was, breathing in the air of Paris, one step away from meeting a person dear to my heart. Despite the freezing cold wind, I was boiling hot inside from the idea of the upcoming event.

~~I saw him anxiously.~~
Looking in the window of the taxi and witnessing the stunning streets of Paris and its architecture made me smile from ear to ear. I saw him anxiously standing in the middle of the square, waiting for me. I could not resist the temptation to run towards him. His smile was the widest

I have ever seen. Wholeheartedly happy, I took his hand into mine and had an amazing time in a gorgeous city with a beloved person.
