Revealing my secret

- "The number you are calling is busy, please, try again later". I called her so many times. What else was I supposed to do? It was the end.

Everything happened on the 4th of July, my favourite holiday. That year I studied in the greatest university ever, MIT. You wouldn't believe how much I've been through to study there. It costed me an arm and a leg. That year was full of strange and unexpected situations.

Here is my unpleasant story, which turned my life upside down. I was sitting in my lovely soft chair reading a Wilde's novel when the door bell rang. I didn't expect anyone to come. It was her, my girlfriend Alice. She made a five hour ride to get to me. Don't ask me how happy I was, because I wasn't. I had another girl sleeping in my bedroom. I should have known this would happen. The only thing I said to Alice at that moment was: "hey, honey". She was tired after a long ride, wanted to sleep. I understood clearly it was my last minute alive. She went to the bedroom and found everything out. Few moments later I was talking to two girls at the same time. They both were mad at me. Alice asked me if I still loved her. I didn't answer. How foolish I was... They both left me in a moment.

The very next day I realized that my world was destroyed. I packed all my things, bought a train ticket to my town and left the university. My only goal was to get Alice back. My secret was revealed.
