My friend Vasily was always ~~a~~ different. He never followed anybody and was full of his own ideas. He is the guy you think of as a weirdo. Cold outside, he, however had a gentle and kind heart.

The story I'd like to tell you happened a year ago, when our class went to the cinema to celebrate the starting/study year. Everybody was happy about it, but not Vasily. To tell you the truth, he never liked any social events and tried to communicate with people as less as possible. That's why he was walking alone in the end of our class group, ~~deciding~~ wanting to get back home sooner. Our way to the cinema was quite long, and when we were crossing another road, suddenly, a little terrified girl asked Vasily for help. Usually, Vasily just puts his headphones and ignores nearby people, but that girl's eyes were so scared and desperate that he couldn't resist.

The girl guided Vasily to her home, where in the yard, on top of a huge tree a fat old cat was stuck. Girl started to cry, because, as she explained her cat was the only friend of hers. Vasily understood that the ~~tree~~ tree was really tall and risks of falling were immense, but he was so touched that he tried his best to save the poor animal.

It was very, very hard to climb that tree. He was close to falling down several times and was very nervous. Vasily was really shocked how could a fat old cat ~~get~~ get to the height of almost 4-storey building tree. However, he managed to save the cat.

The little girl was very happy and she gave him a chocolate bar as a token of appreciation. This story taught Vasily to be understanding to people and to be helpful.
