Everyone had a bad or good teacher at school. What are the most important qualities that teacher should have? Let's decide.

If you asked me, a good teacher should have a high qualification. Teacher is a person who gives his own knowledge to students. Knowledge should be modern and right.

Sometimes study is boring. It's hard to understand new material well. For these situations teacher should suggest different ways to learn a new topic. For example, watching a video, doing a project and make school life interesting and unforgettable. In my experience, I have taken up Chinese classes and our teacher was good, Chinese was interesting. However after a few lessons it has stopped.

Thirdly, teacher should motivate his students to work hard. Students should get an inspiration to learn more. I believe seeing an aim of study helps process go faster.

Finally, teacher should demand from students to work hard, do their homework, have an attention during the lesson. As for me, moreover, it's good when your teacher is funny and has a great sense of humor while in other situations he should be the angriest person to show students what will be, if they didn't do their homework.
