Best Day Ever

It's a nice chilly morning outside. A young man stands in his bedroom. It just so happens that today is his birthday. And it turns out that this man is you! Your name is John Egbert. What will you do?

-I think I am going to eat some cake.

I take one of some cakes scattered around my room. It still emits some of its sweet juicy flavour. I take a bite. It's so delicious, I cannot stop eating it. Now all my fingers are dirty. I have to go wash them. As I step through the door, my leg slowly penetrates another cherry cake. Not only does my dad love to cook, but he also loves pranking me.

-Great, just great - ~~you~~ I say, getting furious. After cleaning myself, I decide to make some coffee. I go downstairs where I am greeted by my dog, Bea. He wags his tail happily and licks my face.

-Hey, friend! - I say in tears.

I get to the kitchen where I am confronted by my dad. -Hello, son! Happy birthday. - he says joyfully. I finally notice the decorations. There are posters of me, some cakes, presents some more cakes. It makes me feel pleased. But it seems that my dad is happier than me.

-Yeah, dad. Thank you. - I say as I hug him. After a long chat with my father I make myself some scalding coffee. Then something vibrates in my pocket. "That might be Rose!" - I think I take my phone. And, indeed, there are two messages wishing me happy birthday. It's Rose and my other friend, Jade. I reply with "Thank you!" Today is the best day ever!
