Our small project.

Our coach told us to record 2 short videos for an upcoming event. I needed to make <sup>10</sup> one video and my friend, Dan, had to make a different one. Later, I asked him, "What do you need to do for the your video, Dan?" He replied with, ~~get~~ <sup>30</sup> Getting to bed right after go home after training. Pretty simple." I said what I had to do, "Well, <sup>15</sup> just need to look at my trophies for a few seconds and go trainin."

The day has begun. I didn't have a good camera, so we used Dan's phone instead. We've decided to record his video first. We did it in Dan's flat. It was really huge! We couldn't start recording my first scene without laughter, but we've managed to do it <sup>30</sup> right on our third try. The second scene, however, took us way more cuts. We'd either make jokes or funny faces. The third shot was the easiest, with <sup>30</sup> no bloopers at all. P

Now it was the time for my video. I have a dog who is very loud and energetic, and Dan isn't much of a dog person. <sup>10</sup> However, ~~she~~ <sup>15</sup> she grew to like her really quickly. <sup>15</sup> The first scene was the hardest, in my opinion, because we had to move my bed in order to record it. And <sup>20</sup> the second scene was ~~it~~ hard to make because my dog kept interfering. She would always bark when I was about to leave. It was funny, though. <sup>15</sup> P

Luckily, Dan knows the basics of editing, so the videos were ready pretty fast. We showed them to our coach and he liked them. <sup>15</sup> SV

It ~~was~~ <sup>15</sup> was an awesome experience. <sup>15</sup> You can imagine myself as an actor in some kind of movie! It was really fascinating, and we've had a lot of fun! <sup>15</sup> P
