~~We and my classmates~~

My classmates and I have quite a ~~few~~ opinions about the new canteen. Mostly, everyone is pleased with it, but there are things that some students dislike.

For example all of us agreed that it's a plus that the canteen area is very big and spacious, but we share an opinion that it feels sort of incomplete, since there is a pretty small number of decorative items. Despite that fact, the atmosphere is very light, due to our peers being open and friendly. To be honest, I do not think anyone was displeased with it.

There are also hardly any people complaining about the food. I personally like it: it is always fresh, tastes good and is very nutritious. However, some people admitted that they did not like it as much. They said that the food tastes kind of bland, and the portions are too small.

But, even with overall good opinions on food, the majority is unhappy with prices. Due to the fact, that they are too high for almost everyone the people started to go to canteen rarer, which is upsetting.

I discussed the ideas on the canteen improvement with my classmates a few times, and we came up with a few suggestions. ~~All of us~~ Firstly, all of us would love to see some pictures ~~hanged~~ on walls. Secondly, most girls asked if it's possible to put some decorative plants down. We also agreed that installing a vending machine with some healthy snacks and drinks would be a very good idea. Lowering prices can also make a big improvement in canteen attendance.

Overall, I think the canteen opening is a very positive thing. There definitely is room for some improvements, but regarding the feedback students gave, the canteen is very pleasing to attend.
