What I hope to be doing in ten years' time

Most people make plans for their future since early ages, and I'm not an exception. So I'd like to tell about my plans for the future.

I'll have a well paid job I'll like. It'll probably be connected with math or drawing and animating. For a long time I've dreamed that I'll live in Japan. Maybe I'll even live with my elder sister. I'll definitely have one or two cute cats as pets. I'll become more confident in myself and brave because nowadays I can be frightened easily and I don't like that. I'll also improve my drawing skills, so I can show my drawings to others and be proud of them. But there're some things I don't want to change like having good friends, good relationships with my family and studying well. Of course, I'll have some problems but I'll be happy with my life.

But even if I say all this, I can't know what the future holds. Maybe my life in ten years' time will be very different from what I wrote.
