Yesterday I was given an opportunity to visit a new canteen recently opened for students of our school. In my report I would like to the advantages of the canteen, as well as some aspects which, to my mind, should be improved.

To begin with, the design of the canteen is one of its obvious benefits. Colourful tables and napkins complement the image of a hospitable place. The room is very light, which also contributes to a cozy atmosphere. Besides, this room is spacious enough to comprise all the students of our school, making it feasible to avoid usual hustle and bustle.

The canteen's menu consists of full meals such as breakfast and lunch, which are served in special time of the day. However, snacks and sweet beverages are available at any time, so what is also an advantage of the new canteen. The quality of the meals ^{all the} ~~negative points~~ ^{lived up to my} ~~expectation~~. Nevertheless, there are some disadvantages which I would like to mention in my report.

As the building of the canteen is located in the back yard of the school, getting there causes much inconvenience for students. Besides, the prices for the meals in the new canteen are ^{of} twice as expensive as in the previous one.

To conclude, I would like to say that my impressions a visit to the new school canteen made a good delightful impression on me. However, there are some points which, in my opinion, should be improved to ~~be~~ ^{make} the canteen a more pleasant place for students. ~~Firstly,~~ ^{For instance} there should ~~be~~ ^{Sweet} snacks would be better substituted for healthier food such as salads and fruit juices. And finally, there ~~is~~ ^{should} be

I hope that my report will be useful to make our canteen a ~~better~~ ^{more} ~~more~~ ^{more} hospitable place.
