Too many toys?

All children have toys. But there is an opinion that some parents buy their children a large number of toys to play with. So, let's think about it.

Everything has advantages and disadvantages. I think that when a child has a lot of toys, he improves his different skills and imagination. For example, Peter I liked to play with toy soldiers. As a result, he won many different battles. I also had a large numbers of toys in my childhood, so my imagination is large now, and I don't have problems with writing fairy tales as a hobby. ^{However,} ~~But~~ sometimes I couldn't choose a toy to play with due to the large number of them. And, of course, sometimes when parents buy ^{their children} ~~their child~~ too many toys, kids can become very rude and impolite because they want more. So,

I think that children must have toys, but in not very large amount.

I recommend parents to buy children ^{new} toys every month or when they do different good things like helping with the housework. ~~I think that~~ Then, a child will grow and become a good person.
