Too many toys?

Nowadays there are hundreds of different types of toys for children to play with. Some parents like to buy many toys for their children, others prefer to buy less toys. So what should a parent choose - to buy many toys for children, or have less toys?

Many toys for a child can be awesome because he would always like to play with something, and he could have an opportunity to choose the toy he likes from a wide variety of them. Some toys may encourage him to do something nice ~~to~~ to other people.⁹⁶ But we also shouldn't forget that a child has to spend some time with his parents.⁹⁸ ~~and~~

But a large number of toys can be harmful for the parents. At first, to buy toys you need money, and toys are not cheap things. Then, if you have a lot of toys at home, you'll need a place to put them, because when all the toys are just lying on the floor, it's impossible to walk and you could get hurt if you accidentally step on one of them.⁹⁹

In my opinion, having too many toys is not good. There's just too much trouble with them. And I am absolutely sure in my words, because when I was a child I had many toys.

Finally,¹⁰⁰ I can say that every parent should choose wisely.

The choice is up to ~~you~~ you.
