22nd Century Fashion

It's exciting to look on the clothes history, because only since the 18th Century, when it was fashion on society status, traditions, but not convenience, people found out, that women can wear trousers, jeans became popular and ext.

Now we're living in the world, which change every hour. Our fashion today is convenience. It doesn't matter, who you are, and you can wear whatever you want. The only exception is uniform for schools and offices. I bet I think, that in 100 years' time people will think more and more about originality and unic of their look, because there are so many people around us, so you do want to look different, show yourself.

I wish there won't be any rules prescriptions on what you should put on, no uniform, but it doesn't mean there won't be any costumes, suits, old-fashioned dresses, they all of this will be. The future wardrobe maybe not much different from ours, but will have more variety of things. The future is in originality, no rules and being yourself.
