Magic world

Have you ever thought about screen version of your favourite book? Exciting events and your loved story in a film? No doubt it is our dream and I would like to tell you mine.

"Chasodei" is a story in <sup>40</sup>six books, by Natalia Cherba. It tells us about teenage orphan girl Vasilisa, who discovers that she has a father. After a short time girl spent with him, she enters <sup>60</sup>new world and becomes a wizard. She starts studying in <sup>80</sup>magic school and makes new friends. Her main goal is revenge <sup>ever</sup> for her mother, who was killed by a crucial <sup>100</sup>wizard Astrogov. With her friends Vasilisa wins a battle with him and even meets her mother for a few minutes. Through <sup>120</sup>the books they fight with monsters and improve their <sup>140</sup>magic skills. In the end, Vasilisa finds her love and becomes the Queen of Chavodol.

<sup>160</sup>Of course, making screen version would be hard and challenging. The story is long and it will take a huge amount of time and money. Finding a suitable cast is also a problem. Vasilisa is a redhead, her friend Nick is short elf boy and Zakhava's skin is lilac. They would need a lot of makeup! In the books Natalia Cherba introduces us to a lot of races. It is also an additional work. <sup>200</sup>But in my opinion, the most difficult part is Characters' magic abilities. Graphic artists would need to do an amazing job because it is surely a big deal.

To sum up, I would like to say that "Chasodei" deserves a screen version because it tells us <sup>r</sup> story about friendship, honour, love and self-confidence. It will be what the doctor ordered for <sup>boy</sup> teenagers who are conscious about themselves. All of us need a little miracle in our life!
