22nd Century Fashion

Nowadays, in 21st century, we wear different types of clothes. Some people wear national clothes, other follow fashion's ^{advice} ~~advice~~. But ^{by} what about the future? What kind of clothes people will be wearing a century from now?

I suppose there are two possible variants of clothes, ⁴⁰ future. ⁵⁰ If the first one happens, all people will wear the same clothes of same colour, for example black shirts, black trousers, etc.

This style of dressing can appear if all ⁷⁰ people decide it is the best way to dress for work and for free time. ⁸⁰ The clothes will differ from today's clothes much because nowadays the ⁹⁰ fashion is about multicoloured clothes.

If the ¹⁰⁰ second variant of clothes, future happens, the clothes of 22nd century will become more comfortable, they clothes will consist of many different colours, which, as we can think now, don't fit each other.

¹¹⁰ or People will dress like this if today's fashion will not change its way of developing, so the future clothes will not differ from what we take on now much.

To sum up, the clothes in ¹²⁰ 100 years' time will either ~~differ~~ change much or not much from today's clothes, but everything depends on people's wishes.
