~~The~~ Best Holidays in Rome

For our summer vacation my family and I went to Rome, Italy. It was the best trip ever. Beautiful views, exquisite architecture, welcoming people. Of course, our journey wouldn't have been great if we hadn't stayed in the best place possible.

My ~~dad~~ father <sup>had</sup> decided to <sup>50</sup> book a hotel room in advance, almost a month before our vacation. In every hotel administrators were rude, and there were <sup>10</sup> no vacant rooms left. That is how we found Regina. A friend of our family gave us her <sup>number</sup> ~~contacts~~ and told us to call her. Granny Regina is an old Italian lady who has houses, villas and apartments all over Italy. We approached her and she gave us permission to stay in one of her apartments. It was a <sup>100</sup> two-bedroom flat right in the center of Rome. We stayed there <sup>120</sup> just for 80 euros <sup>per apartment</sup> a night.

The interior was <sup>150</sup> unique. Vintage paintings and a big art-nouveau mirror were ~~the most~~ <sup>100</sup> incredible. The apartment itself was nice and tidy. Also, there was a handwritten note from Regina with her recommendations of lovely cafés and locals-only spots. The most exciting <sup>200</sup> part of the apartment was the view. We could see the Coliseum from <sup>200</sup> the balcony! <sup>feature</sup>

I can't help recommending Granny Regina. If you want to get a delightful experience in Italy with a <sup>200</sup> personal touch, call her. By the way, follow her <sup>200</sup> advice, those cafés were top-notch. Also, bring ~~to~~ your money to Italy in cash. They don't always accept credit cards there.
