The Best Place to Stay - Bella Muerta!

~~I have a practically perfect~~
If you ever wondered where to stay in London, I have an ~~practically~~ ideal answer. I've been to London due to my studies and I booked a room in a hotel "Bella Muerta". It is located next to the Manor House tube station. It takes ~~less~~ than 20 minutes to get ~~to that place~~ to Piccadilly Circus station. The area, where Bella Muerta is located, is a family-friendly place, thus there were ~~no~~ annoying drunk people leaving the bars at 2 am or noisy traffic in the night-time. As I have already mentioned, I booked an AI single room for ~~the~~ month. The room was so cozy ~~and luxurious~~, ~~that~~ it made me gasped when I walked in. What is more, the maids cleaned my room every day and receptionist was ~~friendly~~ and helpful. There was also an indoor SPA with ~~high-qualified specialists~~ and no entry fee for the guests. However, it is a problem to book a room ~~in Bella Muerta~~, as this 4★ hotel is extremely popular among tourists. There fore you must book room months in advance. Unfortunately, Bella Muerta does not provide guests with any activities outside the hotel. If you want to visit some places like Windsor Castle or admire the beauty of ancient Stonehenge, you have to get there on your own. Nevertheless, it does not spoil your time there, because there is always a show or a party ~~next to the opening air pool~~. As for the food, this hotel provides all sorts of food services: one-meal only (P&B), breakfast and lunch or all-inclusive. For those who have to cook there is a available room with everything one might need. I recommend it and would rate it 8.5/10 as the price is ~~not~~ isn't for every body, but it is totally worth it.
