Travelling to the past

There is no doubt that finding a hotel can be incredibly difficult and stressful. I would like to give you some recommendations if you want to visit Vladivostok. Here is my honest review of a hotel "Vivat".

Hotel "Vivat" is located near the sea. The building is not new but it still looks and functions well. I was staying there for a week. Rooms in "Vivat" are furnished in vintage style. Beds in this hotel are really comfortable. Bathrooms are nice but I would recommend bringing your own towel. I enjoyed my room greatly.

I would also like to mention the food there. We were served breakfast every morning and I liked them a lot. There were many different options like a more nutritious meals or something you can spoil yourself with. The pancakes in "Vivat" were delicious.

But the most interesting part waits you on the fifth floor. "Vivat" has a whole museum that is dedicated to the USSR. We had a chance to touch a typing machine that is way older than my parents! We also saw an old telephone and other historical treasures. Another interesting fact is that there was a library, where you could take a book or even leave one of yours.

To sum up, I would like to say that I highly recommend "Vivat" to everyone who visits Vladivostok. It is a chance.
