Review of a "Seaside" Apartment

Several months ago my family and I were residents in an apartment called "Seaside". It is situated in Vladivostok, not far from the biggest mall there. To begin with, I have already been to many cities all over the world and, consequently, I visited a great number of hotels. That is why I surmise my opinion can be regarded as objective.

Unfortunately, this time we began to look for the hotel too late and it did not enable us to choose the holiday house we initially had wanted to book. Nevertheless, at the last moment my mother has accomplished to find an apartment. Since it was last minute decision, we did not have great expectations. However, the flat was marvellously designed and disputably had some advantages over hotels. We could eat wherever we wanted and occasionally cook by ourselves. Besides, it was not so time-consuming to commute to the sea coast.

The whole apartment was in blue-coloured tones, with indigo furniture and sea species figures all over the flat. In fact, it had only three rooms: kitchen, guest room and bedroom, but to my mind there was enough place for all four of us.

To sum up, it was one of the best decisions to book this apartment for a holiday with my family. We were able to congregate with each other every evening, but still have some personal space. What I would recommend for prospective travellers is to think about your vacation beforehand and read the reviews of the hotel you are likely to choose.
