Why should you stay in the "Tourist" hotel in Vladivostok?

Three months ago I went on a holidays to visit my grandparents in Vladivostok. Unfortunately, their apartment was so small for all of us, therefore I decided to find a hotel to stay in for a week. I was on cloud nine when I found "Tourist".

First of all, not only were rooms in the hotel extremely clean, but they also were relatively cheap. Moreover, booking did not take much time despite the fact that the hotel was popular. None the less, there is more. There was a free pool for every one staying in, but what absolutely baffled me was a small contact zoo on the hotel's territory. I would go there every day after visiting my grandparents and feed admirable monkeys, look out terrifying snakes and pet adorable neutts. I have never seen a thing like this in a hotel.

However, there are also some disadvantages of the "Tourist". I would recommend any traveller who considers staying in the hotel to be prepared for an unfriendly welcome. Staff and cleaning staff in particular, though does its job well, was more rude than polite. What is more although the rooms were clean, the pool I mentioned was not. I have seen hair and litter in the water, so think twice before deciding to swim in it.

In conclusion, my overall experience in the "Tourist" was great. Even with all its downsides, it is a nice place to stay in during holidays and I recommend any one visiting Vladivostok to choose this hotel.
