Gr I will been learning English for nine years when the 2024 come. I've never thought that I can learn this language so long. I started learning English when I was at the kindergarten. There were English lesson and that's how I became to interest with the culture of England. Gr Now I'm learning this language because I want to travel the world. Gr Many people in other countries speak English so in my opinion this skill is very important. Also I like watching English shows and films. I want to understand them in original, because the translation is not always Gr correct. And, of course, I'd like to have an English friend!

Some of my friends say that English is difficult to learn, but I wouldn't say so. What I like about learning this language is that there're easy grammatic constructions. Also a lot of interesting words and frases. I prefer to watch English videos to learn new things so Gr it becomes more enjoying. Gr

Gr At first, do a little, but good. You shouldn't learn hundred words each day or something like this. You need to know when you should finish Gr

Second, Speak a lot. You can do it ^with yourself or with your friend, it doesn't matter. Just try to speak English as often as you can.

Third, watch more videos in English. If you're a beginner, watch cartoons. It's important to improve your listening skills.

And the last advice, don't overwork! Always have a rest!
